

A brief report on the IAYP workshop.

The International Award for young people, India conducted a two day workshop on the different levels of the award and the procedures to be followed while pursuing the award. The workshop was attended by the teachers of various schools from all over north India. Mariyeh Mushtaq and Amandeep Narang attended a workshop which served as a platform and got an opportunity to interact with the representatives of the prestigious schools and to learn more about the award.