

Indraprastha College for Women
University of Delhi

IPC/01/07

1 July 2019

NOTICE

Hostel Students representing on Short of Attendance

This is to inform all that the College has been receiving representations from students who have been denied hostel for being short of the required attendance. Their claims that they have "just come to know" is refuted by the College, as they have taken admission in the hostel according to the rules notified in the Prospectus of their year of admission, and have signed declarations to abide by the College/Hostels rules and regulations.

Cases of those residents whose medical certificates were submitted to the College as stipulated, within three days of their return to the hostel, are under consideration.

Students are informed that the College will not respond to representations regarding the above, and the students are to make their own living arrangements during their period of study in the College this year.

Principal