Public Notice

The management of Indraprastha College for Women has taken note of the unfortunate incident having taken place during the fest organized by the college. The management of the college is concerned about the inconvenience faced by some students of the College when an unruly mob entered into the college and misbehaved with some of the students.

The management of the College has constituted a committee to look into all the grievances being raised by the students of the college. The committee shall also analyse the lapses which have taken place during the organization of the fest and will also suggest the precautionary measures to be taken by the management of the college to ensure that such unfortunate incidents are not repeated in future.

The committee requires the assistance of all the stakeholders and for that purpose, all the stakeholders are being called upon to submit their complaints with the committee along with the proof of misbehaviour at their disposal. The complainants, photographs and videos are requested to be submitted with the Administrative Officer of the college, Mr. Dinesh Sundriyal, during the college hours, on or before 6th April 2023, 5 pm. The complaints and other information can also be sent at the email address of the college i.e. ipcw@ip.du.ac.in.

The management of the college believes that all those individuals who are responsible for this unfortunate incident should be punished by the law enforcing agency and for that purpose, all the information provided to the college will be forwarded to the law enforcing agencies with the request to expedite the investigation and take strict legal action against all those individuals who are responsible for this unfortunate incident.

The management of Indraprastha College for Women will appreciate the support of all stakeholders to ensure that such incidents are not repeated in future and strict action is taken against the culprits.
