

RELEASE OF JOURNAL OF TRANSLATION - CODE Volume 5

CODE (Vol. 5) was released on 22 August 2019 in the Translation and Translation Studies Centre. Titled ‘Reminiscing Indraprastha 1937-1950’, the volume sought to commemorate 95 years of the college by translating articles and poems written by students for the college magazine during its nascent years. The impetus was to translate and thus, archive early memoirs, fiction, poetry etc. written by students in the formative years of the institution and explore this legacy from a contemporary lens.

The release was accompanied by a dramatized reading of ‘The Widow’ from Aruna Chakravarti’s The Inheritors by Dr. Minoti Chatterjee and Ms. Avereer Chaurey. The performance was followed by a stimulating discussion amongst the artistes, the author, and audience, chaired by Prof. Babli Moitra Saraf. The discussion revolved around the themes of gender violence and orthodox religious practices, along with ideas about adaptation and performance as modern methods of translation.

