

Indraprastha College for Women
University of Delhi

Martyrs' Day Report

Indraprastha College for Women observed the Martyrs' Day on 30th January 2023 in the College Auditorium. Marking the greatness and sacrifice of Mahatma Gandhi, the event began with Alaap, the Indian Music Society, paying tribute to the Father of the Nation by dedicating three songs to him. This was followed by observing two minutes of silence at 11 am. The Principal, Prof. Rekha Sethi, addressed the gathering and shared a beautiful poem by Harivansh Rai Bachchan. Two poems were narrated by the students of the Gandhi Study Circle, who stirred the audience with their heart-wrenching poetry. A video was shown by the Gandhi Study Circle on 'Gandhi Smriti'. This was followed by La Cadenza, the Western Music Society, performing the song 'Abide With Me'. The event concluded with the vote of thanks.

