

NSS Unit IPCW

Report

Celebrating 75 years of Quit India Movement

While it is essential to celebrate our glorious past, it is even more important to remember the struggles and revolutions that we suffered through in order to achieve the freedoms enjoy today. NSS is an organisation that focuses inculcating respect and love for the nation among its members and the community.

Following the same, NSS IPCW organised a quiz on 31st of August to celebrate the Quit India Movement on its 75th anniversary. The quiz was prepared by NSS volunteers keeping in mind the theme and had questions regarding different aspects of the QIM and the Freedom Struggle, it was open for participation and all the NSS members responded with great enthusiasm.

Enclosed are some pictures from the event :

