TIMEMAP CONTEST:

MAPPING THE FREEDOM STRUGGLE

Submission of Entries by 31 August 2021, 5:00 P.M.

About the competition:

The TimeMap contest invites entries from undergraduate students on recording and visualizing the time-space context of various events and movements in India's freedom struggle. This contest aims to encourage students to adopt robust methodologies of presenting historical information in a geographical context without compromising the factual correctness and standards of visual impression.

Students can choose events or moments in Indian National Movement that evolved through time and space, such as the spread of Colonialism in India, Awakening of Nationalism, Revolt of 1857, Gandhi and the National Movement, Salt Satyagraha, Tribal Resistance, Indian National Army, Communalism and so on. Participants have to present their understanding of such events which led to India's Independence in the form of a map.

Guidelines:

- 1. Map would be the core part of the essay. Therefore, the evaluation will be based on the creativity and technicality of the map.
  - 2. Different techniques can be used for time mapping - such as animation, 3D mapping etc.
  - 4. A brief note on the methodology used for mapping and a short description not more than 500 words about the map should be attached with the map.
  - 5. Entries should be mailed to the email ID given below.
- No entry shall be accepted after the deadline.
- 6. Only One Entry per student will be allowed. Submit your entries in both PDF as well as .docx format.
