Principal's Address

Distinguished Chief Guest Shri Amitabh Kant, Distinguished Alumna Ms Bela Negi, Esteemed Chairman Shri Alok B. Shriram, Members of the Governing Body, Colleagues, Friends and Dear Students:

I welcome you all to the Centennial College Day celebrations. It is a moment of pride for us to enter the hundredth year of our existence. It is additionally an overwhelming experience for me, as I stand here not just as the Head of the Institution, but also as a proud alumna of the College. From the 'Indraprastha Putri Pathshala' in a small Haveli to an Institution of Academic Excellence with a student strength of more than four thousand young confident women, it has been a remarkable journey. We hold our values dear to our heart and look ahead with hope and optimism. Our students have made a mark in diverse fields and have stood up as role models of women's courage, confidence and creativity.

We are honoured to have amongst us Mr Amitabh Kant, who is presently the G20 Sherpa of India during its Presidency year. Prior to this, he was the CEO of NITI Aayog (National Institution for Transforming India), the premier policy Think Tank of the Government of India. He has also served as the Secretary, Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion (DIPP), Government of India. He has also worked as the Secretary, Tourism, Kerala; Joint Secretary, Tourism, Government of India; District Collector, Kozhikode and CEO, Delhi-Mumbai Industrial Corridor. Shri Amitabh Kant is a member of the Indian Administrative Service, (Kerala Cadre, 1980 Batch). He is the author of Branding India: An Incredible Story, Incredible India 2.0 and has edited The Path Ahead: Transformative Ideas for India. He has been a key driver of 'Make in India', 'Startup India', 'Incredible India' and 'God's Own Country' initiatives, which positioned and branded India and Kerala State as leading manufacturing and tourism destinations. These campaigns have won several international awards and embraced a host of activities, such as infrastructure development, product enhancement, private-public partnership, positioning and branding.

We are proud to have amongst us our dear alumna Ms Bela Negi, who is a Writer, Director, Producer, and also the Founder Trustee of LEAFBIRD Foundation, which works towards Community Empowerment in remote areas of Uttarakhand, sustainable livelihood including local crafts connected to natural resources, relevant education and afforestation. Ms Bela Negi finished her schooling in Nainital before she moved to join B.A (Hons) English in Indraprastha College for Women, University of Delhi. This was followed by a degree in Cinema with a specialisation in Film Editing at the Film and Television Institute of India, Pune. In the past few years, she has written many scripts and currently runs a production house named 'Nitric Films'. Daayen ya Baayen is Ms Negi's debut feature film and has been written, directed and edited by her.

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude and deep regards for my predecessor Prof Babli Moitra Saraf, who superannuated on 31 August 2022 after having steered the institution for 13 years with dedication, devotion and vision. I wish her all the best in all her future endeavours.

As we march towards our centenary, I am delighted to announce that the College will host a series of academic and extracurricular activities to commemorate the Centennial and Centenary celebrations throughout the years 2023 and 2024. The Heritage Calendar of the College is being released today as part of the decade-long practice initiated to commemorate the Centenary of the College. As part of the Centennial celebrations, we have submitted our applications for a commemorative Postal Stamp and a Coin from the Treasury of Government of India. The first event in the series of Centennial and Centenary celebrations will be the IP LitFest scheduled for 9-10 February 2023 organised by the Translation and Translation Studies Centre of the College. The Centennial of the oldest women's College of the University of Delhi is to be looked at as a vantage point of women's empowerment. We will try and dedicate our events to foreground women in leadership positions in arts and culture, business and economy, media and cinema, defence services, public health and community outreach, environment and sustainable development. A series of Conferences, Symposia, Heritage Walks, Musical Evenings, Theatrical Performances will unfold during the next two years.

We are happy to share that the College has been accredited A+ with a CGPA of 3.33 in its second cycle of NAAC Accreditation. Following the recommendations of the NAAC Peer Team, the College has taken significant measures to augment research and innovation. A major step in this direction is the constitution of a Research and Development Cell in the College. The College has improved its NIRF ranking and has moved up by six positions and submitted the report for the academic year 2021-22.

In its journey towards academic excellence, the entire community of Indraprastha College for Women have striven to place the College where it is today. I congratulate the teaching and non-teaching staff on their promotions across various stages. We now have Prof Anindita Roy Saha, Department of Economics and Prof Rekha Upreti, Department of Hindi added to our list of Professors. Dr Akansha, Department of Political Science, Dr Shweta Sharda, Department of Commerce, Dr Ruchika Singh, Department of History and Dr Mayuri Gogoi, Department of Philosophy were promoted as Associate Professors. Dr Anshu, Department of Psychology and Ms Bithika Gorai, Department of English have received their respective promotions.

To enhance our international linkages, the Translation and Translation Studies Centre of the College collaborated with the Faculty of Letters, University of Lisbon to organise an International Conference on the theme 'Indian Languages: Literature and Conversations'. Dr Ankita Pandey from the Department of Political Science has been appointed as the Departmental Lecturer on Modern South Asian Studies in the University of Oxford w.e.f. 1 September 2022 for a period of three years. Several other colleagues presented their research at prestigious international fora. Dr Aatina Nasir Malik, Department of Sociology, Dr Divya Mehta, Department of English, Dr Rituparna Patgiri, Department of Sociology and Dr Aahana B. Chopra, Department of Multi Media and Mass Communication went to University of Cambridge; Universitat Complutense de Madrid, Spain; European Association for Social Anthropologists, Belfast, Northern Ireland; and Deakin University, Melbourne, Australia respectively. Dr Aahana has also been inducted as a Member of the Censor Board of Film Certification, Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India.

The College further strengthened its international outreach by hosting several reputed scholars. The Department of History organized a Talk on 'Translation and Transformation of Sanskrit Texts: Persian Versions of Indian Lore' by Dr Eva Orthmann, University of Gottingen. Department of Political Science organized an International Webinar Series on 'Understanding South Asia: Nationalism and Nation Building', with invited speakers from Pakistan, Bangladesh, Afghanistan, Sri Lanka and others. The Department of Multi Media and Mass Communication hosted the Visit of Mr Ahmed Saleh, Director General of National and International Exhibitions, Ministry of Culture, Egypt.

Adding to the credit of the College, Dr Supriya Saha, Department of Philosophy has been awarded the 'Valuable Service Meritorious Certificate' by the National Award Authority of the International Award for Young People (IAYP). Dr Vinita Sinha, Department of English is the Joint Secretary, Oral History Association of India (OHAI). Prof Jyoti Trehan Sharma, Department of Political Science has been inducted as a member of the Committee constituted by the University of Delhi to develop a 'Centre for Independence and Partition Studies'.

This year saw the execution and implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. The College stands committed towards its success. 28 Members of the Faculty have undertaken Faculty Development Programs designed for Skill Enhancement Courses and Value Addition Courses under NEP. A Skill Development Centre has been set up in line with the vision of the University of Delhi towards NEP. On 27 September 2022, the College organised a day long Symposium on 'Rashtriya Shiksha Neeti: Hindi aur Matribhashaonka Sandarbh'.

This year the College has admitted 1344 students in Undergraduate courses and 138 students in M.A. Previous through CUET. The College has enrolled 15 Foreign Students representing 8 countries. Upholding the College Policy, Full Fee waiver has been granted to 99 students, Partial Fee Waiver to 492 students, Partial Hostel Fee Waiver to 7 students, Full waiver of College fee to 77 students with disability and Full/Partial Hostel Fee Waiver to 21 students with disability. It also gave Financial Assistance to 7 students for participating in conferences and seminars. The College also supported 212 students with financial assistance received from other organisations. As a special initiative, the College has procured 60 chairs to suit the need of the left-handed writers.

2022 has also been a year of transition. After a gap of almost three years, we switched back to the offline mode from online. It brought in a new set of challenges not only in terms of revival of the infrastructure but also in terms of physical and mental well-being of our students in particular. The College expanded its mental health services by appointing Ms Tanya Singh, an alumna, to complement the services of the current College Counsellor Ms Lalita Kaushik. I thank the entire College Community for their cooperation in handling the situation.

As a recognition of the sustained environmental commitments, the College is now a recognized Social Entrepreneurship, Swachhta and Rural Engagement Cell (SES REC) Institution, which has been awarded by the Mahatma Gandhi National Council of Rural Education, Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education, Government of India. The College has also received recognition from the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) for the Green and Sustainable Practices, including Comprehensive Waste Management, generating in-house Compost and efforts to reduce the Carbon Footprint.

The College has maintained its green cover and received several prizes in the 64th Annual Flower Show at the University of Delhi. It also participated in the Shatabdi Vriksharopan 2022, wherein trees and saplings were planted in the available spaces of the College under the aegis of Centenary Celebrations of the University. Another event under this umbrella was a Symposium on 'JanmoBhumi to TapoBhumi: A Journey of Consciousness' on the occasion of the 150th Birth Anniversary of Sri Aurobindo, organised by the Department of Philosophy.

I congratulate Dr Ritu Singhal, Department of Computer Science, Dr Papor Konwar, Department of Political Science, Dr Akansha, Department of Political Science, Dr Gagan Gera, Department of Multi Media and Mass Communication, Dr Jitendra Kumar, Department of History and Dr Sonali Yadav, Department of Geography on being conferred their doctoral degrees. Several members of the faculty have contributed and enhanced the research and academic profile of the institution. Four colleagues have published five books, ten have written twelve chapters in edited books. Twenty-eight faculty members have published forty-eight search papers in peer-reviewed journals of national and international repute. Forty-five colleagues served as Chairpersons, Resource Persons, Panelists and Invited Speakers at various prestigious Seminars and Conferences. Twenty-five members of the faculty have been involved in Curriculum Development and Syllabus Restructuring. Seven members have been involved in supervision of doctoral theses. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has conducted regular meetings and audits to pave the institutional roadmap.

Our Research and Learning Resource Centres have further contributed to the academic standards of the College. These include several Lecture Series, Seminars and Workshops in online, physical and hybrid modes. The Centre for Yoga and Wellbeing organised a 32-hour Certificate Course on 'Well-Being through Yoga'. The Centre for Interdisciplinary Studies organised an online lecture series on Public Health. The Centre for Earth Studies organised a 30-hour Certificate Course on 'Climate Change: Adaptation and Mitigation'. The Centre conducted a Workshop on Air Quality and Human Health in collaboration with Environmental Pollution Laboratory, Department of Environmental Studies, University of Delhi, sponsored by the Department of Science and Technology, Ministry of Science and Technology, Government of India. It also conducted a Workshop on 'Solid Waste Management: Awareness on Solid Waste Management and Segregation at Source' in collaboration with the Municipal Corporation of Delhi. The College has approved two more Research and Learning Centres namely, the Centre for Disability Studies, which was launched on World Braille Day, 4 January 2023 and the Centre for Cultural Studies which will be launched soon.

The Career Guidance and Placement Cell (CGPC) of the College has been very active this year with a total of 135 job offers, including the highest package of Rs. 21.5 Lakhs by D.E Shaw. It organised a 30-hour Online Certificate Course on 'Women in Data Program: Data and Analytics' in collaboration with Learning Links Foundation. The Cell has also initiated a Lecture Series on Career Guidance by experts in various fields. The first one in the series was a Seminar on 'Careers in Civil Services' by Dr Apala Mishra, IFS Officer, AIR 09 (UPSC Batch 2020) which received an overwhelming response from the students.

The Equal Opportunity Cell and Enabling Unit of the College have upheld the College's commitment towards its students with special needs. It has organised several activities such as, Courses on Conversation and Communication Skills, Mobility Orientation Programmes, ten-day Self-Defence Skills Training Workshop by personnel from Delhi Police. It observed the World White Cane Day and the International Day of Persons with Disabilities. The College has signed an MOU with 'Help The Blind Foundation' to start Education, Mobility and Employability Training (EMET), a two-year programme for the second-year students with visual disabilities.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) of the College organised several events of national importance. These include National Youth Festival, 'Suraya Namaskar for Vitality' as part of 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav', Prabhat Pheris under the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' Campaign, SVEEP Week-Jan Manch, National Girl Child Day, Poshan Maah, National Cancer Awareness Day, Plog Run, Expressive Arts Workshop on 'We (Women) Matter', and many more. NSS along with the Students' Union organised a Festivals Mela.

The Community Outreach Project of the College, Project Noor organised a fabric collection drive and sale of clothing stitched by women of the Manual Scavenging Community, in the College.

The College has always supported and been in alignment with the events of national importance. The College observed all the events flagged by the Ministry of Education as part of its National Agenda. The College has been celebrating ‘Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav’ and International Year of Millet with full enthusiasm and fervour through year-long activities under this banner. Several other national and international days of importance have been observed with zeal and respect. These include events like, ‘Har Ghar Tiranga’, ‘Partition Horrors Remembrance Day’, ‘Nadi ko Jano’, ‘Swachh Bharat’, ‘Fit India Movement’, ‘Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan’, ‘Vigilance Awareness Week’, ‘Pariksha Pe Charcha’, ‘Discrimination Against Women Pakhwara’, ‘Constitution Day’, ‘National Unity Day’, ‘International Yoga Day’, ‘Bharatiya Bhasha Diwas’ and many more.

The 15th Annual Public Lecture of the College was delivered by Mr Sanjeev Sanyal, Principal Economic Advisor, Government of India on the topic, ‘How to Make Decisions in a Topsy-Turvy World’.

Our students have exhibited exemplary performance in academic and co-curricular activities throughout the year. I am happy to announce that thirteen students from the Department of Sanskrit were awarded All India Merit Scholarship by the Central Sanskrit University, Janakpuri, New Delhi. Forty-nine students have been awarded Millennium Fellowship for Sustainable Development Goals for the Class of 2022. Twenty-seven students published their research papers and forty-eight students presented their papers at the inter-College/University level. I would like to mention here that all the Departments of the College have given impetus to research and organized Research Methodology Workshops for their students. In addition, the English Editorial Society organized a Workshop on ‘The Making of a Book: Editing and Publishing’.

Our student Ms Sutapa Goswami, B.A. (H) Psychology has shown promising research work at reputed educational and research institutions including the University of California, Los Angeles, USA, Laboratory for Stress Assessment and Research, Mind-Body Trauma Care Lab at University of Minnesota, Duluth USA, and UX Lab, Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi.

Ms Aditi Jain, B.A. (H) English was selected for the ‘Text and Context’ course of Scottish Universities’ International Summer School (SUISS) 2022 at Edinburgh, Scotland. Ms Swetarupa Misra, B.A. Program has been awarded the Felix Scholarship to pursue M.A. in Gender Studies at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), University of London. Ms Paladugu Janika, B.A. (H) Economics undertook the adventurous journey for Bronze Level as per the requirement of International Award for Young People Award Program to explore the heritage monuments, culture, flora and fauna of Delhi.

Taking forward the institutional vision and mission of diversity integration and inclusion, the different co-curricular societies, extension cells and departments of the College kept its Calendar of Activities buzzing with both academic and extra-curricular events. The College hosted the K.K. Birla Memorial Debate, which received large participation from other colleges and universities. We wish to make it an annual event on our activity calendar. The Round Table Conference on Gandhi was organised this year at a larger scale, where our students presented excellent research papers and bagged all the prizes in a national level competition. The Centenary Decade Under-Graduate Research Grant which was initiated in 2014, is nearing its completion. This year 10 projects have been awarded the grant under faculty mentorship. A one-week training and ability enhancement workshop on ‘Data Analytics, Visualization and Presentation’ was conducted by the Department of Computer Science for the entire staff.

Our students have shown their excellence in sports and have won many laurels for the College. Our Karate girl, Ms Rhea Sinha won three Gold and one Bronze medals in the District Karate Championship. She has now been selected for the State Championship which is going to be held in Lucknow. Ms Kiran Kalkal won two gold medals at the All India Intervarsity Tennis Championship and All India Zonal University Tennis Championship. Ms Josel Joseph won a Bronze medal at the Mixed Netball Federation Cup, and Ms Arushi Kotwal won a Gold Medal in the North Zone Intervarsity Chess Championship. Ms Diksha Mathur won a Gold medal in the 37th Delhi State Shooting Championship.

To improve peer perception and overall public profile of the College, the students have taken the lead and are creating amazing content for all its social media handles which will give us a greater visibility. Alumnae of the College have initiated the process of registration of the Alumnae Association.

Among the Non-Teaching Staff, three members participated in workshops organised by the University. Hindi Workshop was conducted by Prof Harsh Bala Sharma, Department of Hindi, for the non-teaching staff on the occasion of Hindi Diwas. This year the Certificate of Appreciation is being awarded to Section Officers, Mr Rahul Tanwar and Mr Vimal Bhatt, for their dedicated services. I also thank both Administrative Officers Mr Dinesh Sundriyal and Mr Jagdish Kandpal for carrying out various tasks with dedication and precision.

I owe a big thanks to all my colleagues from the faculty. I can just say that they form the nerve centre of the institution. I feel privileged to mention a few names who have contributed above and beyond the call of duty. I seek forgiveness if I miss out some names inadvertently. I thank Dr Vinita Sinha, Prof Anindita Roy Saha, Prof RekhaUpreti, Dr Divya Mehta, Dr Akansha, Dr Nidhi Malik, Dr Vagisha Sharma, Dr Seema Singh, Dr Gunjan Khurana, Dr Mitu Rohatgi, Dr Vinita Kaul Dar, Dr Anita Agrawal, Dr Shubhra Seth, Prof Harsh Bala Sharma, Prof Archana Singhal, Dr Veena Gupta, all Teachers-in-Charge and Officers on Special Duty, Coordinators of Centres, Advisors to the Students' Union and Extra-curricular Societies, members of various Staff Council Committees and the list goes on. Today's celebrations have served to highlight the spirit of affection, loyalty and co-operation which is a hallmark of our great institution.

Finally, on behalf of myself and the staff and students of Indraprastha College for Women, I would like to express my deep gratitude to our Chief Guest, Mr Amitabh Kant and Distinguished Alumna, Ms Bela Negi, for their gracious presence at the Centennial College Day celebrations.

I also take this opportunity to thank the University, and the Governing Body, in particular the Chairman, Shri Alok B Shriram for his unstinted support and valuable inputs in matters of the College. I thank all other members of the Governing Body who are supporting us in various ways and are particularly enthusiastic about the Centennial Celebrations.

We begin the journey towards our Centenary with a feeling of pride, optimism and the desire to achieve greater heights and glory for our College.
