

North East Society

Session 2020-2021

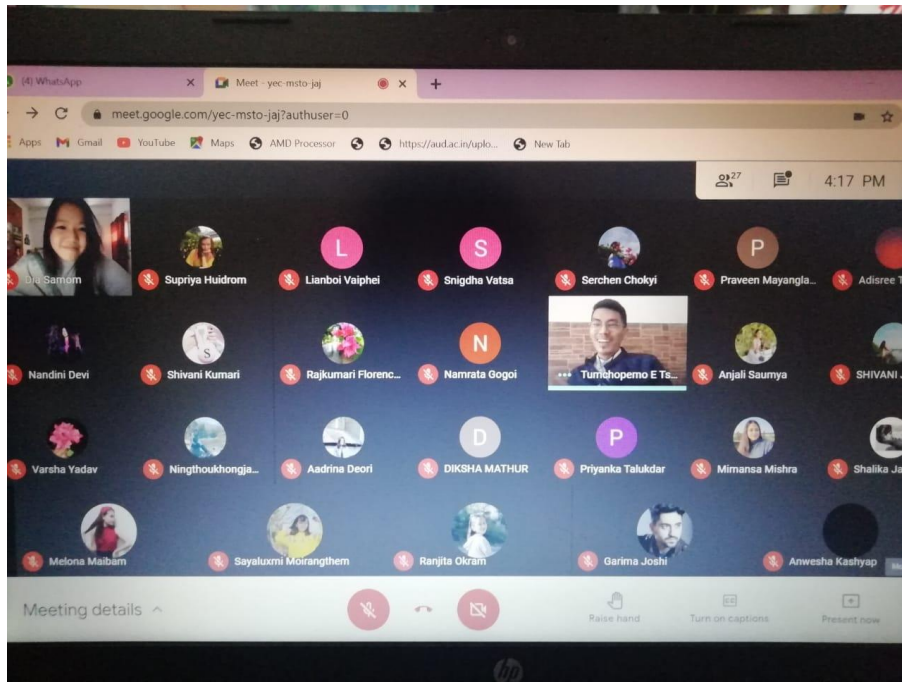

The session of 2020-21 saw all the activities of the NorthEast Society were held online due to the pandemic caused by Corona Virus. It was primarily a time of adapting to a new mode of holding activities online and trying to leverage widened access of having resource person across the country.

The North East Society held a webinar on “Traditional Worldview of NorthEast India and the Contemporary World” on 24 Nov 2020 through Google meet. The resource person was Dr. Binayak Dutta from North Eastern Hill University (NEHU) and Dr. Vibha Joshi from Oxford University. It was moderated by Dr. Paulavi Das of Philosophy Department, Indraprastha College. The event was well attended with students and we had a very rich discussions on the theme and many related issues, with active participations from the audience through many thought provoking questions and answers after the lecture was given.

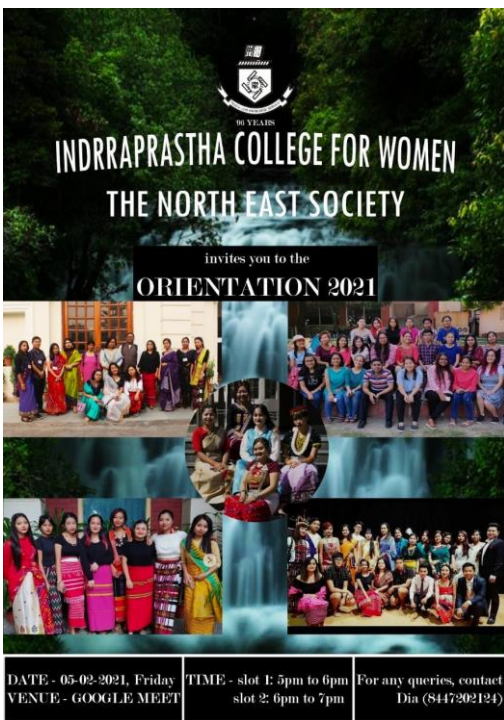

In the beginning of this semester we could Online Orientation on 5 Feb 2021. We had freshers from the first year where we gave them Orientation about the Society – the activities both cultural and academic, a virtual tour of the college by the seniors and teachers. The society's advisor along with the office bearers shared their experiences and opportunities of the college and Delhi University in general. The Freshers were also welcomed with a song prepared by Imonenla N Imsong and Anyakshi Hazarika of Political Science department. The students who attended the Orientation were from across the departments of the College. the pandemic, the students could attend and participate in activities wherever it was possible and engage them.
