

Events organised by the Northeast Society from January to December, 2017

A talk on “Music, Gender and Regional Identity” by Dr Prachee Dewri, Assistant Professor, Hansraj College, University of Delhi was organised on 20 February 2017.

A Student Seminar (Inter-College) on “Folk Culture of Northeast India” was organised on 20 February 2017. First prize was secured by Nazrana Haque, Miranda College and second prize by Sunayana Dutta, IP College.

A Panel Discussion on “Race, Language, Culture: Locating the Northeast in India” was organised on 30 March 2017 in collaboration with Control Arms Foundation of India (CAFI). The panelists were Ms Binalakshmi Nepram, Civil Rights Activist, Author, Co-founder of CAFI (Control Arms Foundation of India); Dr Nitoo Das, Assistant Professor, IP College for Women, University of Delhi; Mr Ravinder Pal Singh, Formerly Senior Fellow at Institute for Defence Studies and Analysis, Delhi, Ford Fellow at University of Maryland and Romen Arangbam, Survivor of Racist Violence.

The Northeast Cultural Festival was held on the same day, showcasing the region’s rich cultural heritage.

A Quiz Competition was organised on 14 September 2017 on the topic, “India under the Raj - with focus on Northeast”. The first prize went to Ankur Agraj, Venkateswara College and Kartik Puri, Mphil, DU. The second prize went to Prithavi and Bishal, GB Pant Engineering College.

An Inter- College Essay Writing Competition was held on the same day on the topic, “Northeast in the 70th year of India’s Independence”. The first prize was secured by Debina Moirangthem, IP College and the second prize by Sibani Baruah, IP College.

