

Principal's Honour Roll

For Individual Initiative and Significant Achievement beyond the Curriculum

Aakanksha Saharan, B.A. (Hons.) English, Part III

For her vision for the College Magazine AAROH's editorial objectives, and for her work with languages.

Arisha Parvez, B.A. (Prog), Part III

For significant community service working with marginalised women and children in the red light area of Delhi.

Bhawana, B.Com (Hons.), Part III

For community service and achievements as a cadet of NCC, including her selection and nomination as Reserve Cadet for the Youth Exchange Program of Kyrgyzstan and Bhutan 2018.

Deeksha Agrawal, B.Sc. (Hons.) Computer Science, Part III

For significant work in Design and Photography.

Fabi Mathur, B.A. (Prog), Part II

For her contribution as a teacher and environmentalist on GLOBE (Global Learning and Observations to Benefit the Environment), a Citizen Science Program, sponsored by NASA, NSF and supported by NOAA and the US Department of State. She also acted as the lone judge from India on the International Virtual Science Symposium conducted by GLOBE, to mentor and support students.

Kaushiki Negi, BMMMC, Part II

For her award at the national level for her short ad film, to increase participation of youth in matters of Consumer Awareness.

Nilanjana Parijat, B.A (Hons.) Psychology, Part III

For significant contribution to the activities envisaged under the IAYP programme in the College and for her achievement in photography and adventure activities.

Palak Maheshwari, Diksha Goel, Niharika Bordoloi, Neha Yadav, Bhavna Saini and Sonal, BMMMC

For the award of the First prize for their film (Dis) abled, in the International Documentary Festival, 'Prakriti'.

Saachi, B.Sc (Hons.) Computer Science, Part III

For her work as the first President of the College Science Society – Ananta, to spear-head the development of science projects and cultivate scientific awareness to involve the College community.

Sachi Arora, B.Com. (Hons.), Part III

For significant work in the College as President of the Career Guidance and Placement Cell, and for her selection as City Manager – Delhi on the AKA Fellowship, to work in the NGO 'Make a Difference'.

Safa A Rahim, B.A. (Hons.) Political Science, Part III

For her wide ranging pursuit of excellence at national and international levels, demonstrated by certifications from prestigious international educational institutions and agencies.

Shruti Jain, B.A. (Hons.) History, Part III

For the prize winning model on Zero Waste Policy, presented by the College team "Greenhorns" at Ideathon 18, IIT Delhi. Also awarded for her achievement in creative writing and for her leadership role in the Baithak Society, Music Archives and Listening Room (MALR) of the College.

Sneha Bansal, B.Com. (Hons.), Part III

For significant work and mobilisation of the College community as President of the ECO Club.

Sunayana Dutta, B.A. (Hons.) History, Part III

For her work as co-editor of the book Arunodoi: ethnic identity, environment, economy, culture and homelands, published SLAC Assam, Government of Assam and Arunodoi Publication, and her work with languages for the student journal, CODE.

Tanisha Jain, B.A (Program), Part III

For the first department magazine of the B.A Programme students.

Taskeen Nazir, B.A (Program), Part III

For commendable contribution to community service in a conflict zone.