

Unmukt (February 2023)

The Women's Development Cell and Gender Sensitization Committee of Indraprastha College for Women organised the 6th edition of Unmukt, an annual event that celebrates pride, acceptance, and inclusivity of all gender and sexual identities. It was conducted on 14 February, 2023, from 11:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. at the Student's Activity Area.

The event was attended by several students and teachers in the college. It commenced at 11:00 AM with an array of vibrant stalls set up by the students of IPCW, offering a diverse range of items such as accessories, apparel, artworks, jewellery, tarot card reading, etc., allowing the audience to immerse themselves in the experience. Moreover, a wide range of food options, ranging from nachos to mocktails, and from Indian to Western cuisine, were made available for the audience throughout the event at a student-friendly prices. The Food was also prepared by the students of the college.

At 12:00 noon, an open-mic event on the theme of 'Existence but Resistance' was organised. Students from different departments participated, showcasing their talents through various artistic mediums like poetry, music, dance, skits, comedy, etc., to celebrate the theme of the day. Following the scheduled performances, the platform was opened to willing participants, and a music system was arranged for the audience to dance and sing along.

To infuse an environment with joy, several additional fun activities were arranged for the students. These included activities such as hair braiding by women worker from Delhi-Haat and face-painting done by the college art society Croydon. Photo booths were also set-up, along with the provision of hand-made frames, allowing the audience to capture creative pictures. The cell also created a fun Bingo game and a 'pour your heart out' confession board, providing an avenue for the students to write anonymous confessions, reviews, and remarks related to the theme of the event. This was done to include a written flow of expression. Overall the event aimed to create an ambience of enjoyment and celebration while promoting artistic expression and creativity among the students.

The event witnessed a massive turnout, with the venue reaching its capacity. The atmosphere was filled with music and joy, making it a significant highlight of the celebration.
