Legal Awareness Programme for Women from North-East States in Delhi

Invitation for participants

In view of the escalating rate of crime against women from the North-East, the National Commission for Women is organising a Legal Awareness Programme to sensitise women/ students from the North-East, who reside in Delhi, about laws pertaining to their safety and security. The programme will be held at the auditorium of the National Commission for Women, Plot No. 21, Jasola Institutional Area, Delhi-110025 (closest metro station: Jasola Apollo), on April 7-8, 2016, from 10.30 am. You are cordially invited to the legal awareness programme and are requested to spread the word among North-East members of your organization/ institution. Kindly note that the travel allowance of the participants will be borne by the Commission as per the norms of the Government of India.
