

Indraprastha College for Women
University of Delhi

Department of Philosophy
Farewell
28th April 2025

INDRAPRASTHA COLLEGE FOR WOMEN
UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

Organises

FAREWELL

Join us for an exciting and entertaining celebration don't miss it we're waiting for you to join us.

"The pain of parting is nothing to the joy of meeting again."

DATE - 28th APRIL ,2025
TIME- 11:15 A.M. ONWARDS
VENUE - CONFERENCE ROOM

Patron
Prof. Poonam Kumria
Principal

Teacher-In-Charge
Dr. Supriya Saha

Faculty Coordinator
Dr. Neha Sukhija

The farewell ceremony for the third-year students was filled with emotional moments, entertaining performances, and heartfelt good wishes. The event was a fitting tribute to the outgoing students, who have been an integral part of our department.

The ceremony began with a warm welcome note by the Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Supriya Saha, who shared her personal experience with the class and praised the third year students as being matured, responsible and supportive throughout. She encouraged them to take on life positively and follow the principles of their favourite philosophers to keep up with the challenges that they would face as they embark into their new phase of life.

Her inspiring words set the tone for the day, filling the students with nostalgia and enthusiasm.

The event featured a range of captivating performances, including:

- A poem recitation by Aastha, a first-year student, that left the audience spellbound
- A mesmerizing dance performance by first-year students Mimansha, Anushka, Aaliyah, Sudeepa, and Pooja Thakur, showcasing their synchronized moves and energy
- A soulful song by Anmol, dedicated to the third-year students, bringing tears to many eyes
- A duet dance by Bhavya and Anuradha, second-year students, that stole the show
- A captivating solo dance performance by Aakrieti, a second-year student, showcasing her talent and flair.

The next segment was a heart-warming video message from the faculty members of the department, sharing fond memories and words of motivation for the third-year students.

The best wishes of faculties who could not attend the event were also conveyed to them.

These messages are a testament to the strong bond between the students and faculties of the Department. Further as a token of appreciation, gifts and sashes were distributed to the third-year students, to mark their achievements and the memories they have created during their time here.

The event saw an attendance of 105 students across the three years.

The event culminated with a cake cutting ceremony, marking the end of an era for the third-year students. The sweet gesture added a touch of joy and celebration to the farewell ceremony.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all who made the farewell ceremony a memorable one. As the third-year students bid adieu, the students were left with cherished memories and a sense of appreciation for the time spent together.

The farewell ceremony was a fitting tribute to the third-year students, celebrating their achievements and the memories they have created during their time here. We wish them all the best for their future endeavour.

Glimpses of the event

