

Centenary Alumna Meet and Kavi Sammelan on 27 May 2025

On 27 May 2025, Indraprastha College for Women, University of Delhi, organized its Centenary Year Celebration and Alumni Meet. The event was graced by Smt. Meira Kumar as the Chief Guest. Notably, Smt. Meira Kumar is also an alumna of Indraprastha College for Women. The Principal of the college, Prof. Poonam Kumria, informed that the institution has successfully completed its glorious 100-year journey. To mark this significant milestone, a Vastu Pujan and Yajna ceremony was organized in the college premises during the morning hours. This was followed by the Alumni Meet and the Centenary Kavi Sammelan titled "Hunkar." The Kavi Sammelan featured renowned poets who lent their voices to the spirit of national consciousness, including Padma Shri Surendra Sharma, Ashok Chakradhar, Hariom Panwar, Shambhu Shikhar, Kavita Tiwari, Vijaylakshmi Shukla, Charanjeet Charan, Prakhyaat Mishra, Suraj Mani, and several other distinguished poets. The event was compered by Gajendra Solanki. During the Kavi Sammelan, Chief Guest Mrs. Meira Kumar fondly recalled her student days at the college and also recited one of her own poems. Through her poetry on women's consciousness, dignity, and self-respect, she captivated the audience comprising alumni, faculty members, and other guests. The participating poets enthralled the gathering with their powerful and inspiring recitations. The alumni present at the event cherished memories of their student life and enjoyed reconnecting with one another in a spirit of camaraderie. They also expressed their gratitude to Prof. Poonam Kumria, Principal of the college, for organizing this historic and memorable celebration.
